hearts are in this cause, but who forget the necessity for pecuniary aid. Let them take this hint, and send their donations of a dollar or three dollars, or five, or a hundred, to the Committee here, if they desire practically to aid the good work. Let the light into the dark districts of Pennsylvania, and the battle is won.

CONGRESSIONAL NOMINATIONS.

I learn that Hon. Mr. Knowlton, of Maine, has addressed a letter to his constituents declining a renomination for Congress. His reason therefor is this: He is a clergyman, and does not think a member of his profession has any business in Congress unless he comes to sustain some great moral movement, at a time when it is doubtful whether any other candidate can succeed. That was the case when he was nominated two years ago,—and now he thinks any good Republican can be elected just as readily as himself. It is supposed that either NEHEMIAH ABBOTT, of Belfast, or S. C. FESSENDEN, a brother of Senator Wm. Pitt Fessenden, will be the nominee. Mr. KNOWLTON has been a true soldier in the contests of this session, and will be missed when absent from the post he fills so well. Hons. Emerson and John Sherman, of Ohio, have also been renominated by acclamation. Both have been tried and found true as steel.

NAVAL REFORM.

The Naval Committee of the House have agreed to Report the Senate's Amendatory Naval Reform Bill, precisely as it came from that body. This is as it should be. Why will not the House take up this measure during its closing hours, and consider in the Committee's recommendation. It is the only measure of relief which can be afforded to officers injuriously affected by the action of the Retiring Board, and ought not be longer delayed. The measure has been amply discussed in the Senate and by the Press. The House is as familiar with it now as it ever will be at any future time, and had better dispose of it.

The Treaty with Nicaragua.

The following is the Treaty with Nicaragua, confirmed by the Senate, in Executive Session, on Wednesday last:

(Confidential.)

A TREATY—Of Friendship, Commerce and Navigation, between the United States and Nicaragua, concluded at Granada, the fourteenth day of June, Eighteen Hundred and Fifty-five.

In the name of the Most Holy Trinity. Commercial intercourse having been for some time established between the United States and the Republic of Nicaragua, it seems good, for the security as well as the encouragement of such commercial intercourse, and for the good maintenance of good understanding between the United States and the said Republic, that the relations now subsisting between them should be regularly acknowledged, and confirmed by a Treaty of Amity, Commerce and Navigation.

For this purpose they have named their respective plenipotentiaries, to wit: the President of the United States: JOHN HILL WHEELER, Minister resident near said Republic; and His Excellency Deputy President of the Republic of Nicaragua, Señor Don SEBASTIAN ESCOBAR, and Señor Don AUGUSTINO AVILES; who, after having communicated to each other full powers, found to be in due and proper form, have agreed upon and concluded the following Articles:

ARTICLE I.

There shall be perpetual amity between the United States and their citizens, on the one part, and the Government of the Republic of Nicaragua and its citizens, on the other.

ARTICLE II.

There shall be, between all the territories of the Republic of Nicaragua, a reciprocal freedom of commerce. The subjects and citizens of the two countries, respectively, shall have full liberty freely and securely to come with their ships and cargoes to all places, ports and rivers in the Territories aforesaid, to which any other foreigners have or may be permitted to come, to enter into the same, and to remain and reside in any part thereof, respectively; also, to hire and occupy houses and warehouses for the purposes of their commerce; and generally the merchants and traders of each nation, respectively, shall enjoy the most complete protection and security for their commerce, subject always to the laws and statutes of the two countries respectively. By the right of entering places, ports, and rivers, mentioned in this article, the privilege of carrying on the coasting trade is not understood; in which trade national vessels only of the country where the trade is carried on are entitled to engage. This article in no manner shall be so construed as to derogate from the privileges granted by the Republic of Nicaragua to the Accessory Transit Company.

ARTICLE III.

It being the intention of the two high contracting parties to bind themselves by the preceding articles, to treat each other on the footing of the most favoured nation, it is hereby agreed between them, that any favor, privilege, or immunity whatever, in matters of commerce and navigation which either contracting party has actually granted, or may grant hereafter to the subjects or citizens of any other State, shall be extended to the subjects of the other contracting party gratuitously, if the concession in favor of that other nation shall have been gratuitous, or in return for a compensation as nearly as possible of proportionate value and effect, to be adjusted by mutual agreement, if the concession shall have been conditional.

ARTICLE IV.

No higher nor other duties shall be imposed on the importation into the Territories of the United States of any article being the growth, produce or manufacture of the Republic of Nicaragua, and no higher or other duties shall be imposed on the importation into the Territories of the Republic of Nicaragua of any articles being the growth, produce or manufacture of the Territories of the United States than are or shall be payable upon the like articles being the growth, produce or manufacture of any other foreign country; nor shall any other or higher duties or charges be imposed in the Territories of either of the high contracting parties, on the exportation of any articles to the Territories of the other than such as are, or may be, payable on the exportation of the like articles to any other foreign country; nor shall any prohibition be imposed upon the exportation or importation of any articles the growth, produce or manufacture of the Territories of the United States, or to or from the Republic of Nicaragua, which shall not equally extend to all other nations.

ARTICLE V.

No higher or other duties or payments, on account of tonnage, of light or harbor dues or pilotage, of salvage in case of either damage or shipwreck, or on account of any local charge, shall be imposed in any of the ports of Nicaragua on the vessels of the United States than those payable by Nicaraguan vessels; nor in any of the ports of the United States on Nicaraguan vessels than shall be payable on the same ports on the vessels of the United States.

ARTICLE VI.

The same duties shall be paid on the importation into the territories of the Republic of Nicaragua of any articles being the growth, produce or manufacture of the territories of the United States, whether such importation shall be made in Nicaraguan vessels or in the vessels of the United States; and the same duties shall be paid on the importation into the territories of the United States of any article being the growth, produce or manufacture of the Republic of Nicaragua, whether such importation shall be made in United States or Nicaraguan vessels. The same rules shall be paid, and the bounties and drawbacks allowed on the importation to the Republic of Nicaragua of any articles being the growth, produce or manufacture of the territories of the United States, whether such importation shall be made in Nicaraguan vessels or in the vessels of the United States; and the same bounties and drawbacks allowed on the importation of any articles being the growth, produce or manufacture of the Republic of Nicaragua to the

ARTICLE VII.

The Territories of the Republic of Nicaragua shall be free to the citizens of the United States for commerce; they shall have full liberty to manage their own affairs themselves, or permit the same to be managed by persons whom they may think proper to employ as their factors, agents, or interpreter; nor shall they be obliged to employ any other persons in those offices than those employed by Nicaragua; nor to pay any higher salary or remuneration than such as is paid in like cases by Nicaraguan citizens; and absolute freedom shall be allowed in all cases to the buyer and seller, to bargain and fix the price of any goods, wares, or merchandise, imported into or exported from the Republic of Nicaragua, as to them shall seem good, observing the laws and established customs of the country. The same privileges shall be enjoyed in the Territories of the United States, by the citizens of the Republic of Nicaragua under the same conditions. The citizens of the high contracting parties shall also have power to dispose of their personal property of all sorts and descriptions by sale, donation, testament or any other manner whatsoever, as also the administration of justice, the citizens of the two high contracting parties shall reciprocally enjoy the same privileges, liberties and rights as native citizens; and they shall not be charged, in any of these respects, with any higher imposts duties than those which are, or may be, paid by native citizens—submitting, of course, to the local laws and regulations established in each country. It is also agreed that the right to trade at retail, which is hereby secured, shall include the retail of merchandise; but this shall be regulated by the mercantile laws of each country. If any citizen of either of the two high contracting parties shall die, leaving a will legally authenticated, it shall have due and full effect; and the heirs to the same will shall be allowed to take, hold and possess any estate, real or personal, under said will. If any citizen of either of the two high contracting parties shall die without a will or testament in any of the Territories of the other, the minister, or consul or diplomatic agent of the nation to which the deceased belongs or the secretary of the legation, such minister or consul or other diplomatic agent, (in case of absence) shall have the right to nominate curators to take charge of the property of the deceased, so far as the laws of the country will permit, for the benefit of the lawful heirs and creditors of the deceased, giving proper notice of such nominations to the authorities of the country.

ARTICLE IX.

1. The citizens of the United States residing in Nicaragua, or the citizens of Nicaragua residing in the United States, may intermarry with the natives of the country, hold and possess by purchase, marriage, or descent, any estate real or personal, without thereby changing their national character, subject to the laws which now exist or may be enacted in this respect.

2. The citizens of the United States resident in the Republic of Nicaragua, and the citizens of Nicaragua resident of the United States, shall be exempted from all forced (or compulsory) military service whatever, by land or sea; from all contributions of war, military exactions, forced loans in time of war; and they shall be obliged in the same manner as the citizens of each nation, to pay lawful taxes, municipal and other modes of imposts, and ordinary charges, loans and contributions in time of peace, as the citizens of the country are liable to, in just proportion to the property owned.

3. Nor shall the property of either, of any kind, be taken for any public object without full and just compensation to be paid in advance; and

4. The citizens of each of the two high contracting powers shall have the unlimited right to go to any part of the territories of the other, and in each and every part of the country to the ports of the country where they reside, with the condition that they duly observe the laws and ordinances.

ARTICLE X.

It shall be free for each of the two high contracting parties to appoint consuls for the protection of trade, to reside in any of the territories of the other parties, but before any consul shall act as such, he shall in the usual form be approved and admitted to the Government to which he is sent; and either of the two high contracting parties may except from the residence of consuls such particular places as they judge fit to be excepted.

The diplomatic agents of Nicaragua, and consuls, shall enjoy in the territories of the United States whatever privileges, exemptions, and immunities as are or shall be allowed to the agents of the same rank belonging to the most favored nations; and in like manner the diplomatic agents and consuls of the United States in Nicaragua shall enjoy, according to the strictest reciprocity, whatever privileges, exemptions and immunities that are or may be granted to agents and consuls of the most favored nations.

ARTICLE XI.

For the better security of commerce between the citizens of the United States and the citizens of Nicaragua, it is agreed that if at any time any interruption of friendly intercourse, or any rupture should unfortunately take place between the two high contracting parties, the citizens of either, who may be within the territories of the other, shall, if residing on the coast, be allowed six months, and, if in the interior, a whole year to wind up their accounts and dispose of their property; and a safe conduct shall be given them to embark at any port they themselves may select. Even in case of a rupture, all the citizens of the high contracting parties who are established in any of the territories of the other, in trade or other employment, shall have the privilege of remaining and of continuing such employment, without any manner of interruption, in the full enjoyment of liberty and property, so long as they behave peacefully and commit no offence against the laws; and their goods and effects, of whatever description they may be, whether in their own custody, or intrusted to individuals, or to the State, shall not be liable to seizure or sequestration, nor to any other charges or demands than those which may be made upon the like effects or property belonging to the native citizens of the country in which such citizens may reside. In the same case, debts between individuals, property in the public funds, and shares of companies, shall never be confiscated, sequestered, nor detained.

ARTICLE XII.

The citizens of the United States and the citizens of the Republic of Nicaragua, respectively residing in any of the territories of the other party, shall enjoy, in their houses, persons and property, the protection of the Government, and shall continue in the possession of the guarantees which they now enjoy. They shall not be disturbed, molested, nor annoyed in any manner on account of their religious belief nor in the proper exercise of their religion, agreeably to the system of tolerance established in the territories of the high contracting parties; provided they respect the religion of the nation in which they reside, as well as the Constitution, laws and customs of the country. Liberty shall be, also, granted to bury the citizens of either of the two high contracting parties, who may die in the territories aforesaid, in burial places of their own, which in the same manner may be freely established and maintained; nor shall the funerals or sepulchres of the dead be disturbed in any way or upon any account.

ARTICLE XIII.

Whenever the citizens of either of the high contracting parties shall be forced to seek refuge or asylum in the rivers, ports or dominions of the other, with their vessels, whether merchant or war, public or private, through stress of weather, pursuit of pirates or enemies, or want of provisions or water, they shall be received and treated with humanity, and given all favor and protection for repairing their vessels, procuring provisions, and placing themselves in all respects in a condition to continue their voyage without obstacle or hindrance of any kind.

ARTICLE XIV.

It is agreed, between the United States and the Republic of Nicaragua, that, upon mutual requisitions by them or their ministers, officers or authorities, respectively made, they will deliver up to justice all persons, of either country, who may seek an asylum or concealment within the territories of the others, charged with the crime of murder, or assault with intent to commit murder, or piracy, or arson, or robbery, or rape, or forgery, or the utterance of forged papers, or burglary, or the fabrication or circulation of counterfeit money, whether coin or paper money, or the embezzlement of public funds committed within the jurisdiction of either party: Provided, that this only be done upon such evidence of criminality as, according to the laws of the place where the fugitive may be found, would justify his apprehension and commitment for trial, if the crime or offence had there been committed; and the respective judges and other magistrates of the two Governments shall have power, jurisdiction and authority, upon complaint made on oath, to issue a warrant for the apprehension of the fugitive or person so charged that he may be brought before such judges or other magistrates respectively, to the end that the evidence of criminality may be heard and considered. If on such hearing the evidence be deemed sufficient to sustain the charge, it shall be lawful for the magistrate or authority before whom the hearing may take place, to certify the same to the proper executive authority, that a warrant may issue for the surrender of such fugitive. The expenses of such apprehension and delivery shall be borne and defrayed by the party who makes the requisition and receives the fugitive.

ARTICLE XV.

The two high contracting parties hereby agree that they shall not, one with the other, grant any letters of marque for the purpose of preying upon the vessels or property of the citizens of the other, even though such vessels or property may be employed by the enemies of one of the parties; nor shall either party receive any such letters of marque, if offered to them by any power at war with the other, nor enlist or commission any privateers for the purpose of such warfare.

ARTICLE XVI.

The present treaty shall be ratified, and the ratifications exchanged at Washington City, within ten months from the date hereof, or sooner if possible.

In witness whereof the respective plenipotentiaries have signed the same, and affixed thereto their respective seals.

Done in the City of Granada, Republic of Nicaragua, this fourteenth day of June, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five. JNO. H. WHEELER. [L. S.]

THE OLD-LINE WHIGS.

State Convention at Albany—Declaration for Fillmore—The Address and Resolutions—List of Delegates to the National Convention—Speeches, &c.

ALBANY, Thursday, Aug. 14.

A State Convention of Old-Line Whigs met in Van Vechten Hall, this morning. Some 600 Delegates were in attendance. The Convention was called to order by THOMAS MCELROY, of Albany, who stated the authority under which the Convention met. He nominated Hon. W. C. HASBROUCK, of Greene, temporary Chairman.

Mr. HASBROUCK took the Chair amidst great applause. He briefly addressed the Convention—thanking them for the honor conferred upon him, declaring that the Whig Party could not be considered as dead, and reminding them that they had, as the conservative party of the Union, a duty to perform to the whole party.

J. HOMANS HAWS moved that J. L. RENSHAW and P. C. MAIN be appointed Secretaries. Carried unanimously.

Mr. HAWS then moved the appointment of a Committee of eight to report permanent officers.

The Chair appointed the following as such Committee:

J. H. Hobart Haws, D. B. St. John, James Edwards, W. Noyes, J. R. Lawrence, T. B. P. Hale, P. Backus and A. H. Lawin.

After a brief absence, the Committee returned, and reported the following as the permanent organization:

President—Hon. FRANCIS GRANGER, of Canandaigua.

Vice Presidents—W. W. Todd, of New-York; J. T. Harrison, of Richmond; James Foster, of Orange; T. H. Bond, of Oswego; H. H. Ross, of Essex; T. H. P. Hall, of Broome; J. J. McElwayne, of Wyoming; W. W. Deming, of Dutchess; E. Cone, of Livingston; James Cowan, of Cortland; A. H. Howell, of Ontario, and J. A. Bostell, of Niagara.

Secretaries—John T. Bush, Jas. G. Crooker, Peter C. Male, J. L. Bernon and W. R. Pollett.

The report of the Committee was unanimously adopted.

A Committee of two, consisting of F. W. Tallmadge, of New-York, and Mr. GRAHAM, of Dutchess, was appointed to conduct the President to the chair.

Mr. GRAHAM was greeted with the most enthusiastic and prolonged cheers on taking the chair.

He addressed the Convention as follows:

"Whigs!"—(Immediately interrupted by three tremendous cheers.) He said the old battle-cry of Whigs was raised cheering. [A VOICE—Repeat it.] It was so, when cheers they only rally a broken legion. He thanked the Convention for the honor conferred upon him, and declared his satisfaction at recognizing so many Whig faces around him, as persons in high places had declared that the Whig Party had ceased to exist. Those who adhered true to the country would never desert such principles. He alluded to the time when no old citizen had ever been at fourteen from those who, after receiving honors from the party and wielding the ascendancy, had betrayed to betray and destroy it. This meeting, and the position of those against whose irrepressible conflict they had risen, were sufficient indications now of their action in the present crisis to emulate the noble example of CLAY and WEBSTER.

Mr. GRAHAM's remarks, which were frequently applauded and well delivered, were frequently interrupted with loud cheers.

Mr. R. JOHNSON of Dutchess, moved that a committee of four be appointed to report an address draw up resolutions, &c., carried.

The President appointed the following as such Committee:

Hon. A. Wyatt of Rockland, W. R. Johnston of Ontario, Jerome A. Hamilton of Westchester, and Benjamin Bissop of New York.

On motion of Mr. TALLMADGE the Delegates in Congress and Thurlow Weed were appointed to confer with the Committee.

The Convention then adjourned to 3 o'clock this afternoon.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Convention reassembled at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

R. A. WEST, Esq., of the New-York Commercial Advertiser, from the Committee, read the address and resolutions.

The address points to the moral position of the Whigs of New York, who find themselves for the first time without a candidate for the highest office in the gift of a free people. It declares that the National Whigs have no regrets for the past, as they have always done their duty. It reviews the three candidates before the country, setting forth strongly that Whigs cannot support Mr. BUCHANAN because of his principles, nor Mr. FREMONT because he had always been a Democrat of the Pierce school, and is the candidate of a party sectional in spirit. It then declares that in Mr. FILLMORE's late Administration, all Whigs have just cause to take pride, and expresses the fullest confidence in him as a national candidate. Its concluding resolutions are as follows: "Domestic tranquility is what the country now specially and almost solely needs, and it is that which will not result from the election of either of the other candidates. Mr. FILLMORE's election will secure the restoration of peace at home and the perpetuation of peace abroad. We are told, however, that he is no longer a straight Whig. Be it so—what then? Is Mr. BUCHANAN a Whig or Mr. FREMONT? The gulf between us as Whigs and Mr. BUCHANAN or Mr. FREMONT, is immeasurably wider than it is between us and Mr. FILLMORE. He is a Whig and consenting mere. We are Whigs and nothing else; and it is to be distinctly understood that it is not the candidate's objection that he failed to receive the vote, [two-thirds not voting in affirmation. The vote stood 23 against 17.

THE CIVIL APPROPRIATIONS.

The Senate then proceeded to the consideration of the bill making appropriations for the various civil items.

A long debate ensued on the House proviso, prohibiting military superintendency in the erection of public buildings except for defensive purposes, which it was stricken out.

An amendment was adopted authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to purchase three stores at the Atlantic Dock, Brooklyn, (N. Y.) and appropriating $100,000 for that purpose. Adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

WASHINGTON, Thursday, Aug. 14.

ABSTRACTING DOCUMENTS.

A communication was received from the Postmaster-General, in reply to a resolution, saying that special instructions have been issued to the proper agents, and no effort will be spared to discover and punish persons who unlawfully abstract or detain from the mails books or documents sent hence by Members of Congress.

THE APPROPRIATION BILL.

The House then proceeded to act on the amendment to the Legislative, Judicial, and Executive Appropriation bill, as reported from the Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union.

The House voted to retain the appropriation of nearly $166,000 for books, which the Senate had stricken out, and added a proviso that any member who was unwilling to receive his share may so inform the Clerk, who shall report the same to the House next session.

The House concurred by 97 against 90 in the amendment substituting Mr. PENNINGTON's amendment, offered yesterday, that no money be drawn until the treason cases be dismissed, for a similar one which the Senate had stricken out.

The House disagreed by five majority to the Senate's amendment restoring the appropriation of $20,000 for the expenses of the future Legislature of Kansas.

The House then concurred by 7 majority in an amendment similar to one stricken out by the Senate, preventing expenditure for arresting, prosecuting or detaining persons charged with treason and other political offences growing out of the action of the Legislature of Kansas or the Topeka Convention.

POST-ROUTES, ETC.

The House then passed the bill establishing a large number of post-routes, and tabled, by 23 majority, the Senate bill appropriating nearly a million of dollars to pay certain bondholders the amount expended by Utah Territory for the suppression of Indian hostilities. Adjourned.

THE OLD-LINE WHIGS.

State Convention at Albany—Declaration for Fillmore—The Address and Resolutions—List of Delegates to the National Convention—Speeches, &c.

ALBANY, Thursday, Aug. 14.

A State Convention of Old-Line Whigs met in Van Vechten Hall, this morning. Some 600 Delegates were in attendance. The Convention was called to order by THOMAS MCELROY, of Albany, who stated the authority under which the Convention met. He nominated Hon. W. C. HASBROUCK, of Greene, temporary Chairman.

Mr. HASBROUCK took the Chair amidst great applause. He briefly addressed the Convention—thanking them for the honor conferred upon him, declaring that the Whig Party could not be considered as dead, and reminding them that they had, as the conservative party of the Union, a duty to perform to the whole party.

J. HOMANS HAWS moved that J. L. RENSHAW and P. C. MAIN be appointed Secretaries. Carried unanimously.

Mr. HAWS then moved the appointment of a Committee of eight to report permanent officers.

The Chair appointed the following as such Committee:

J. H. Hobart Haws, D. B. St. John, James Edwards, W. Noyes, J. R. Lawrence, T. B. P. Hale, P. Backus and A. H. Lawin.

After a brief absence, the Committee returned, and reported the following as the permanent organization:

President—Hon. FRANCIS GRANGER, of Canandaigua.

Vice Presidents—W. W. Todd, of New-York; J. T. Harrison, of Richmond; James Foster, of Orange; T. H. Bond, of Oswego; H. H. Ross, of Essex; T. H. P. Hall, of Broome; J. J. McElwayne, of Wyoming; W. W. Deming, of Dutchess; E. Cone, of Livingston; James Cowan, of Cortland; A. H. Howell, of Ontario, and J. A. Bostell, of Niagara.

Secretaries—John T. Bush, Jas. G. Crooker, Peter C. Male, J. L. Bernon and W. R. Pollett.

The report of the Committee was unanimously adopted.

A Committee of two, consisting of F. W. Tallmadge, of New-York, and Mr. GRAHAM, of Dutchess, was appointed to conduct the President to the chair.

Mr. GRAHAM was greeted with the most enthusiastic and prolonged cheers on taking the chair.

He addressed the Convention as follows:

"Whigs!"—(Immediately interrupted by three tremendous cheers.) He said the old battle-cry of Whigs was raised cheering. [A VOICE—Repeat it.] It was so, when cheers they only rally a broken legion. He thanked the Convention for the honor conferred upon him, and declared his satisfaction at recognizing so many Whig faces around him, as persons in high places had declared that the Whig Party had ceased to exist. Those who adhered true to the country would never desert such principles. He alluded to the time when no old citizen had ever been at fourteen from those who, after receiving honors from the party and wielding the ascendancy, had betrayed to betray and destroy it. This meeting, and the position of those

Mr. GRAHAM's remarks were mainly confined to a review of the circumstances that had led to the disruption of the old Whig Party, and to a justification of the course adopted by the National Whigs. In the course of his remarks he warmly eulogized Mr. FILLMORE's Albany speech. He (GRAHAM) had resolved not to take any part in the present campaign, but when he heard an attack made upon Mr. FILLMORE for principles that he (GRAHAM) cherished in his heart of hearts he had resolved to cast aside disinclination and enter the contest. Some lukewarm papers had stated that Mr. FILLMORE must have written his letter. He was not so. He always knew what he wrote. He had been misrepresented. He had stated in one letter that Northern conservatism had gone over, appealing only to Northern votes and on party principles; and other papers had said Mr. FILLMORE was more loyal to the South than the North. He (GRAHAM) was present at the time when he read the Vice-President's letter and then alluded to. He had then received a vote in Kentucky that would be a gratification to him all his days. Maryland was then heard, and so also was little Delaware. Could he be called a sectional man? It was a fact worthy of note, that until this bomb-shell was thrown into the Republican camp, there was not a single one of those now war, of electoral districts for FREMONT in Kentucky and Missouri.

Mr. GRAHAM's speech was loudly applauded throughout, and at its close the Convention adjourned.

Large Fire at Chicago.

BURNING OF HOTELS AND RAILROAD DEPOTS.

A LARGE AMOUNT OF PROPERTY AND GRAIN DESTROYED.

CHICAGO, Thursday, Aug. 14.

A large fire broke out this morning at 2 o'clock, in the Walker House, a corner of Clark-street, near the Michigan Southern and Illinois Central Railroad Freight Depots, and communicated thence to Goss & Farnam' coal factory, to the Illinois House, to Bennett's warehouse, to the Michigan Southern and Northern Indiana Railroad freight depot, and to the Illinois and Southern Railroad freight depot, destroying all the immense buildings and grain contained therein, and several dwellings. They were totally consumed, together with their contents. ## The General Politics.

Mr. A. H. Hoover, who was one of the Centennial Commissioners at the Centennial Exhibition, has published a letter to Mr. Buchanan on the Democratic party, which is a model of its kind. It is a letter to Mr. Adams, which opens it is one of the main issues of the campaign—and that is the assumption of the Centennial platform, the "resuscitation of the Slavery question"—and the accomplishment of this purpose by one of the two great objects of his party, by means of the Secession bill. The "resuscitation" of the Slavery question is the avowed object of the Democratic party, and after debate the Democratic Convention in the Wigwam, and the Democratic Convention in Baltimore, and after speeches in Congress, and after speeches in the Senate, a communication from the Governor-Elect of Georgia, a communication from the Governor-Elect of Louisiana, &c., &c., &c., the Legislative, Judicial and Executive departments of the Government all unite in declaring that the Democracy is the party of Slavery, and that under the pretence of "home rule" they intend to reopen the Slavery question, and to reverse the decision of the National Convention of 1860, which declared that Slavery was dead, and that the Constitution was to be administered in the interests of Freedom. The Democracy are resolved to make Slavery all the law of the land, and to repeal all laws which are inconsistent with it. Mr. Hoover's letter is a model of its kind. It is a calm, dispassionate, and yet thorough exposition of the issue which the Democracy have made up with the country. It is a letter which every man should read, and which every man should keep for reference. We have not room for it to-day, but we shall print it in full to-morrow. We commend it to the attention of every reader.

The Election.

The election in Maine takes place on Monday next, and the result will be known on Tuesday morning. The Democrats are making a desperate effort to carry the State, and they have the assistance of the Democratic Governor, Chamberlain, who has used the whole power of his office to help the Democratic party. Governor Chamberlain is a Democrat who was elected by the Republicans, and he has betrayed the party which elected him. He has appointed Democrats to all the offices in his gift, and has used the whole power of the State to help the Democratic party. The Republicans have a strong ticket in the field, and a good platform, and they will make a vigorous fight. The Democrats have made the issue, and they will be defeated on it. The Republicans will make the issue, and they will be victorious on it. The Democrats have declared that the Republicans are fighting the battles of the war, and that they are the party of treason. The Republicans have declared that the Democrats are the party of treason, and that they are the party of Slavery. The Republicans have declared that the Democrats are the party of Secession, and that they are the party of Rebellion. The Republicans have declared that the Democrats are the party of Disunion, and that they are the party of Anarchy. The Republicans have declared that the Democrats are the party of Slavery, and that they are the party of Secession, Disunion, Rebellion and Anarchy. The Democrats have declared that the Republicans are the party of Freedom, Union, Loyalty and Order. The Democrats have declared that the Republicans are the party of Abolitionism, Fanaticism, Negro Equality and Negro Supremacy. The Republicans have declared that the Democrats are the party of Copperheads, Traitors, Rebels and Secessionists. The Democrats have declared that the Republicans are the party of Negro Equality, Negro Supremacy, Negro Suffrage, Negro Citizenship, Negro Jurors, Negro Voters, Negro Legislators, Negro Governors, Negro Judges, Negro Generals, Negro Admirals, Negro Presidents, Negro Kings, Negro Gods, Negro Devils, and Negro Hell. The Republicans have declared that the Democrats are the party of Slavery, Secession, Disunion, Rebellion, Anarchy, Copperheads, Traitors, Rebels, Secessionists, Negro Haters, Negro Whippers, Negro Drivers, Negro Slave-Catchers, Negro Slave-Traders, Negro Slave-Owners, Negro Slave-Drivers, Negro Slave-Whipp

BIGELOW'S LIFE OF FREMONT,

THE AUTHORIZED AND ONLY COMPLETE EDITION,

It "tells the whole story" of
His Explorations, Discoveries and Adventures, on five successive expeditions across the North American Continent, derived from his Private and Public Correspondence, including his Defence before the Court Martial, and a full report of his principal Speeches in the Senate of the United States.

With the only accurate Portrait on Steel, and numerous Spirited Illustrations.

One large Octavo, of near 500 pages. Price, $1. Containing 100 pages of matter not to be found in any other Biography of Fremont.

Says the Boston Daily Journal:

"Mr. Bigelow is not only very full, but is attractively written. The brilliant career of Colonel Fremont presents many romantic and varied material for such a work as this, and the most interesting portions of which Mr. Bigelow has fully availed himself. We wish this work could be placed in the hands of every voter in the United States, for it would blunt the points of many of the shafts which bitter and unscrupulous partisans are aiming at Fremont, and it would secure, on full information, even in the midst of political excitement, of the indomitable energy, activity, courage, integrity and patriotism, which have been strikingly displayed by the bold explorer in his eventful career."

THE GREATEST DISCOVERY OF THE AGE—Dr. KENNEDY, of Rochester, has discovered in one of our common pastures, weeds, a remedy that cures every kind of humor, from the worst scrofula down to a common pimple.

Two to three bottles will clear the system of boils.

One bottle will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth or stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure ringworm in the scalp.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three or four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula.

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above amount is taken.

In short, I satisfied over a thousand persons of this in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effects of it in every case. So sure as water will extinguish fire, so sure will this cure humor. I never sold a bottle of it but that sold another; after a trial, it always speaks for itself. There are very things about this herb that appear to me surprising. First, that it grows in our pastures, in some places quite plentiful, and yet its value has never been known until I discovered it in 1846; second, that it should cure all kinds of humor.

In order to give some idea of the sudden rise and great popularity of the discovery, I will state that in April, 1846, I peddled it, and sold about six bottles per day. In April, 1854, I sold over a thousand bottles per day.

The usage of diet over recovery—eat the best you can get, and enough of it.

Directions for Use.—Adults, one table spoonful per day; children over 8 years, dessert spoonful; children from 5 to 8 years, tea-spoonful. As no direction can be applicable to all constitutions, take sufficient to operate on the bowels twice a day.

Mr. KENNEDY gives personal attendance in bad cases of Scrofula.
